Saturdays and Sunday Closed

All programs offered by the library are FREE

November 1st, 8th, 15th, 22nd, and 29th @ 1:00 PM

Bridge Club for Beginners – Weekly bridge group for all who are interested in learning more about the Bridge card game.

November 6th and 20th @ 5:45 PM

Bridge Club for the experienced – Join us on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of the month to play Bridge at a more advanced level. All are welcome.

November 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th @ 6:30 PM

The Science Behind Global Warming (continued) with Professor Kevin Cannon

This program began on October 16th and runs to November 27th from 6:30 to 7:45 in the Meeting Room. Join us as we explore the science that is associated with global warming, and examine the evidence pointing to ongoing global warming and the modeling techniques used to predict warming trends. The course will present relevant scientific information to help participants make informed public policy choices. No preregistration necessary.

November 1 @ 6:30 PM

The Great Hollywood Musicals - Movie-buff Paul Sofian returns by popular demand for a fun question and answer slide lecture on the great movie musicals-- Singing In The Rain, 42nd Street, West Side Story, Oklahoma, and many more! Get to know behind the scenes trivia and an inside look at the unforgettable stars who made these legendary films. Bring a friend!

November 13 @ 6:30 PM

An Evening with the Hidden River Trio - This trio is composed of three members of the Lansdowne Symphony, who have enjoyed playing chamber pieces of both celebrated and unfamiliar composers. Our performance includes works by Johan Hummel and Ernst Naumann; both works are interesting and beautiful chamber compositions. More information is available on our website.

November 18 @ 1:00 PM

Film Screening: Chasing Ice - Nearly 10 years ago, environmental photographer James Balog embarked on an arctic pilgrimage to gather real-time evidence of global warming in Iceland, for National Geographic. His account took years to complete. This film is epically haunting, heart wrenching, dramatic and completely moving. Chasing Ice received a 2012 Sundance Film Festival Award and an Emmy in 2014. The film runs for 75 minutes.

November 27 @ 6:30 PM

The Falls Book Group - At our monthly meeting we will be discussing The Short and Tragic Life of Robert Peace by Jeff Hobbs.

December 2 @ 9:30 AM

Autumn Book Sale - Sponsored by the Friends of Falls Library, this is a great venue for finding unusual and interesting reading materials for leisure reading and holiday gifts.
