October 16th for 6 Mondays – The Science Behind Global Warming with Professor Kevin Cannon

Presented by the Wagner Institute of Science from October 16th to November 27th from 6:30 to 7:45 in the Meeting Room. This course explores the science that is associated with global warming, and examines the evidence pointing to ongoing global warming and the modeling techniques used to predict the warming trend. The course will present relevant scientific information to help participants make informed public policy choices. No preregistration necessary. Register by attending the first class.

October 25th, 6:30 PM - Prepare for the Unexpected: Urban Emergency Preparedness

What happens when flood, fire, pandemic, tornadoes, or other disasters affect your community? Where will you go? What will you do? Learn valuable planning and survival techniques that may one day help save your life or the lives of those you love. Presented by representatives from the REI Conshohocken.

October 30th, 6:30 PM – The Falls Book Group will be holding their monthly meeting in the Story Room. The book selection for October is Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen. All are welcome.

October 30th, 7:30 PM – An Evening of East Falls Performers. Please join us for our annual Evening of East Falls Performers now in its 27th year. The evening will include a diverse menu of entertainment - instrumentalists, vocalists, standup comedians, and dancers - both children and adults. This popular community event is sponsored by the Friends of Falls of Schuylkill Library. Feel free to bring a friend. Admission is free.

November 1st , 6:30 PM – Movie Talks – Great Hollywood Musicals – Who is your favorite? Join us for an evening of lively discussion as movie-buff Paul Sofian conducts his slide-show talk on The Great Hollywood Musicals. Get to know all the behind the scenes trivia about classics such as Singin' in the Rain, West Side Story, Oklahoma!, The Sound of Music, plus many more, along with getting an inside look at unforgettable stars who made these legendary films. Paul Sofian has been presenting his slide-show talks since 1990. Sofian is a member of the chestnut Hill Film Group, as well as providing the introduction for the weekly Tuesday Night at the Movies series. He is a frequent presenter at libraries, bookstores, private parties, and retirement communities. This program is free and no registration is required. Bring a friend!
